FOREWORD

Peter O'Reilly's 1884 diary has been voluntarily transcribed for informational purposes only. Researchers interested in this diary are advised to consult the original document housed at the Royal British Columbia Museum & Archives, found in MS-2894, the O'Reilly family fonds.

TRANSCRIPTION NOTES

Each year's transcription includes a brief diary summary for each month. A reference and comments section is also provided to identify people, places, events, or things mentioned in the diaries. Comments, where provided, are discretionary and are given when it appears helpful to the understanding of the diary contents. The existence of a reference or comment within the diary is indicated by an asterisk beside the diary date. Multiple asterisks indicate multiple references or comments for the same date.

Square brackets are used to denote transcriptionist comments. Best guesses of words or phrases appearing in the text are enclosed in square brackets and not italicized, while functional comments about the text are italicized. The following are examples of functional comments.

- [illegible] – a word cannot be read.
- [deletion] – a strikethrough cannot be read.
- [no entry] – no entry in the diary for that date.
- [left blank] – a space reserved for text entry.
- [overwritten text] – text written over the top of other text.
- [loss] – text that is too faint to read.
- [missing] – microfilmed diary does not contain that date.

Spelling inconsistency is commonly found and is usually not corrected from the original, however, letters are occasionally inserted in square brackets to clarify the understanding of an otherwise misspelled word.

Deleted words and sentences are included and struck through where legible.

TRANSCRIPTIONIST: TIM FITZTHUM – VICTORIA, BC

Indians claim land north from the US border and between the Kootenay and Columbia Rivers.
July 15, 1884

DIARY SUMMARY

JANUARY

Wallpaper installation completed in the dining room at Point Ellice – Frank O'Reilly briefly works in the office of William Bennett, resident engineer for the Esquimalt Graving Dock project – goods purchased in England arrive, customs and duties fees paid.

FEBRUARY

Peter O'Reilly moves to the Indian office with Dr Powell, the Indian Superintendent – Peter pays surveyor Joseph Pemberton $25 per month to employ Frank 2 hours per day – Franks 18th birthday – winter storm leaves 2 feet of snow.

MARCH

Unpacking the piano and other goods shipped from England – Ashdown Green determines plan and specification for alterations to Point Ellice – construction commences in the drawing room and north room.

APRIL

Peter receives $8133 for the scheme to manipulate beef cattle prices – payouts to Mrs Ellis (London) and Capt Knox (Ireland) for Peter's investments on their behalf – preparations made for this season's reserve creation – house painting begins while drawing and north room reconstruction proceeds slowly – reserve crew including Frank O'Reilly departs – reserves laid out near Yale and Spuzzum on the Fraser River.

MAY

Chehalis Indian reserve Harrison River laid out – horse carriage purchased in August 1883 in London arrives in Victoria – house alterations and repairs continue – tennis parties at the Jackson and Begbie homes.

JUNE

First telephone bill paid - Land & Works commissioner William Smithe approves the reserves laid out by Peter O'Reilly with their related survey maps – reserve crew of O'Reilly, Green, Normansell, a packer, and Chinese cook depart for the Kootenay taking a steamer to Portland, a train to Sand Point (Idaho), then by horseback – James Normansell suffers a stroke.

JULY

Father Fouquet of St Eugene's Mission interprets and explains Peter's objectives to Chief Isadore – the Indians claim all land between the Kootenay and Columbia rivers to the border saying the land does not belong to the Queen, rejects Peter's small Tobacco Plains reserve – Normansell barely able to travel, Fouquet agrees to care for him at the mission.

AUGUST

O'Reilly and Green move to Columbia Lake to establish the next reserve where Peter finds "a capital range for cattle & a large area fit for cultivation" – hunting, fishing, and letter writing are the usual pastimes – disagreements with Indians about reserve land selections.

SEPTEMBER

Return trip through Idaho and Washington territories – arrangements made to take Normansell to Victoria – a stop in Osoyoos to see John Haynes – new reserve laid out at Keremeos – Peter collects rhododendrons at Skagit flat for Point Ellice – arrival in Victoria.

OCTOBER

Meetings with Colonel James Baker and William Baillie Grohman – death of James Normansell – reserve creation at Alert Bay – bird hunting on Nimpkish River – discussion with Joseph Trutch regarding reserve troubles at Metlakatla.

NOVEMBER

Peter lends John Haynes $10,000 at 8% interest – considers subdividing land at Coal Harbour.

DECEMBER

Hall stove purchased and installed at Point Ellice – preparation of the seasonal reserve report - cold, snowy weather freezes pipes and allows for skating at Skinner's Pond and Swan Lake – Peter suffers from a bad attack of lumbago, confined to home – family gathering at Fairfield for Christmas.

reserve. The Chief again repeated that he wanted the Country fr. Bull

R. - Did not get back till 5-45

Shot 6- young Prairie Chicken

1884-07-27

SUNDAY

Fine day – the usual thunder & lightning

Normansell complaining of bad headache. Read & wrote to the

dear wife & children. D. McLoughlin

& Wrecy arrived, the latter, has no feet,

was almost drowned in crossing St Marys

R. gave them meals & they remained the night. The Chief Isadore also honoured me with a visit & remained

A great deal of thunder & lightning.

1884-07-28

MONDAY

Green sent an order by D. McLoughlin to Galbraith for supplies.

Rode over the proposed reserve with Green Alick, Campbell & the Chief. Observed more rough timber land than supposed – at one of the small lakes we got 17- fine

flappers & afterwards shot 5- prairie chicken. Green ran a line from Mathers [field] to upper ferry.

[overwritten text]
