NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

FERMATA invites pertinent, previously unpublished articles from graduate students concerning historical and systematic musicology, analysis, criticism, interdisciplinary studies, and performance practice. Book and record reviews also are welcome. Moreover, in order to promote graduate research at Canadian universities, students are encouraged to submit brief abstracts of their approved thesis or dissertation topics. For general matters of style, potential contributors are requested to refer to the Chicago Manual of Style (1982).

Specific stylistic considerations include the following:

1. Articles should be between 4,000-6,000 words, book reviews between 1,000-1,200 words, and record reviews between 500-700 words.
2. Contributors of articles or reviews must supply three (3) typewritten, double-spaced copies of their submission. All hard copies should be on 8.5" x 11" paper with ample margins. Authors' names should appear in the cover letter only. Once the article has been accepted, one (1) copy on a 3.5" disk should be submitted.
3. Footnotes should be numbered in sequence.
4. Musical examples, tables, captions, illustrations, etc. should be in "camera-ready" form, numbered in sequence and placed at the end of each submission, with locations for each example, table, etc. indicated clearly in the text. It is the author's responsibility to obtain permission for the use of any material that is held under copyright.
5. Within the text, please refer to examples as Ex. 1 or Exs. 2 and 3, etc.
6. Foreign titles and names should be italicized rather than underlined.
7. FERMATA accepts submissions throughout the year. Articles, reviews, and editorial correspondence should be addressed to Editor, FERMATA, School of Music, University of Victoria, P.O. Box 1700, Victoria, B.C., V8W 2Y2, Canada, Fax (604) 721-6597.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND STANDING ORDERS

CAN $ 12 for institutions and individuals, CAN $ 8 for students. There is an additional charge for postage outside Canada.
