General Information

Courses of Study

The College offers instruction in the first two years of the Arts Course.

The Session

The College year or session is divided into two terms, the first extending to the Christmas vacation, and the second from the end of the Christmas vacation to the end of the Sessional Examination in April.

The Session of 1921-22 will begin on Tuesday, September 27th.

Two Matriculation Examinations will be held, one commencing on Wednesday, September 14th, 1921, and the other on June 26th, 1922.

Registration

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Friday, September 23rd, will be the last day of registration for all students.

Lectures will commence on Tuesday, September 27th.

The complete regulations regarding registration follow:

1. Candidates entering on a course of study, whether as undergraduates, conditioned students, or partial students, are required, before the beginning of the session, to furnish the information necessary for the University records, to register for the particular classes which they wish to attend, and to sign the following declaration:

"I hereby accept and submit myself to the statutes, rules, regulations, and ordinances of the University of British Columbia, and to any amendments thereto which may be made while I am a student of the University, and I promise to observe the same."

2. Students who for any reason have failed to register by the date specified above will be permitted to do so within a limited time thereafter, but only on payment of a fee of $2 for late registration.

3. The Registrar is empowered to register all students whose records show that they are entitled to attend the classes applied for. To enable him to determine this, new students must present certificates at time of registration. All doubtful cases will be dealt with by the Faculty.

ATTENDANCE

1. Students are required to attend at least seven-eighths of the total number of lectures in each course. Those whose unexcused absences exceed one-eighth of the total number of lectures in a course shall not be permitted to come up for examination in that course, but may sit for supplemental examination; those, however, whose unexcused absences exceed one-fourth of the total number of lectures in any course must repeat the work in that course.

Excuses on the ground of illness or domestic affliction will be dealt with only by the Principal. Medical certificates must be presented immediately on return to University work.

2. A record will be kept by each professor or lecturer, in which the presence or absence of students will be carefully noted. This record will be submitted to the Faculty when required.

3. Credit for attendance at any lecture or class may be refused on the grounds of lateness, inattention, neglect of duty, or disorderly conduct in the class-room or laboratory.

4. Lectures will commence on the hour, or at the conclusion of the roll-call. After the commencement of a lecture students are not allowed to enter, except with the permission of the Instructor. If permitted to enter, they will, on reporting themselves at the close of the lecture, be marked "late." Two "lates" will count as one absence. Lectures end at five minutes before the hour.

CLASSES OF STUDENTS

There are three classes of students:

1. Undergraduates—Students who have passed the Matriculation Examination and, in the case of a Second Year student, all the examinations of their course in the years below that in which they are registered.

2. Conditional Undergraduates—Those with defective entrance qualifications or those who have failed in one or more of the subjects of their course in the year previous to that in which they are registered.

3. Partial Students—Comprising all those who, not belonging to one of the above classes, are taking a partial course of study. Except as provided below, such students may (subject to the approval of the Head of the Department and the Committee on Course) attend any class without previous examination.
