From the Editors

On behalf the Editorial Board, we are pleased to present Volume Seven of Musicological Explorations, a journal published by the graduate students in music of the University of Victoria. The intent of the journal is to enrich musicological discourse at the university level, providing a forum for scholarly work by graduate students and faculty.

We take this opportunity to express our gratitude to the board for their work and dedication this past year. We would also like to thank our Faculty Advisor, Dr. Susan Lewis-Hammond for her invaluable assistance and guidance in producing this year's journal. For their generous funding contributions, we gratefully acknowledge the Faculty of Fine Arts, the Faculty of Graduate Studies, and the School of Music at the University of Victoria. Moreover, proceeds from the sale of books generously donated by the estate of Philip T. Young greatly assisted this undertaking. Many thanks are extended to the Young family and the University of Victoria Library for this valued donation.

We look to the continued success of the journal and of the authors whose work is published herein. We hope that our readers will continue to support the journal through subscriptions and submissions.
